District Superintendent's Report

The 2008-2009 school year was an exciting, rewarding year for the students, staff, and community of the Clover School District.

Clover High School graduates set a new record for scholarship money earned and will represent our district proudly this fall whether they are attending the finest universities or entering the workforce. Forty-three seniors earned Palmetto Fellows awards, and a CHS senior was named a National Merit Scholarship winner. In extra curricular activities, CHS won state titles in chorus, student council, livestock judging (FFA), and job interviewing (FFA). The AFJROTC unit won a third, consecutive national Distinguished Unit Award. The Robotics Team placed in the top 20% at a national competition. A CHS student was elected state FFA president.

Seven of our nine schools won Palmetto Gold and Silver Awards for outstanding academic performance. Clover High School and Crowders Creek Elementary School won Gold Awards for general achievement. Bethany, Bethel, and Griggs Road Elementary Schools won Silver Awards for general achievement. Clover High School, Bethany Elementary School, Kinard Elementary School, and Griggs Road Elementary School won Silver Awards for closing the achievement gap among children from differing economic, racial, and ethnic groups. Crowders Creek Middle School won a Gold Award for closing the achievement gap. Standardized test scores continue to improve and exceed state averages.

Eleven Clover teachers showed their commitment to professional development by earning National Board Certification, raising the district total to seventy-seven teachers certified by the National Board for Professional Teaching Standards.

Our district continues to grow. We will open Oakridge Middle School and Larne Elementary School in August of 2009. The tasks of construction, purchasing equipment, creating new attendance lines, assigning personnel, and selecting instructional materials were all successfully accomplished during the 2008-2009 school year.

Thank you for the opportunity to serve your children. Your continued support of our schools is greatly appreciated.

Marc Sosne, Ph.D., Superintendent
