REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Jackson Middle School continues to be proud of its progress and the many accomplishments our students have made in the 2008-2009 school year.

Increased opportunities for lifelong learning and development which included standards-based instruction, cutting-edge technology, an across-the-curriculum reading program, a superior band program, expert consultants and instructional coaches, extended-day instructional programs, and progressive clubs and organizations.

Jackson Middle School enjoyed a multitude of successes to including the following: continued improvement in school-wide discipline through positive reinforcements (Business Bucks, Principal's Club, participation in school-wide activities such as PACT Superlatives, incentives for PACT scores, and FIDO); five students were recognized as Junior Scholars for 2008-2009; a math lab was created to provide teachers and students with hands-on activities to improve instruction; the Jackson Middle School Band had 18 students qualify to perform with the Aiken All-County Bands; the Jackson Middle School Band had 10 students to play with the region bands at the Region Two band concert; the Jackson Middle School Band received the Superior rating for the 16th consecutive year at the South Carolina State Concert Band Festival; the South Carolina Band Directors' Association bestowed the Outstanding Performance Award to the Jackson Middle School Band for the 20th consecutive time; the Jackson Middle School girls' basketball team finished the regular season with a record of 10-2 and made the playoffs; the Silver Bluff Bullpups finished the football season as Conference "A" champions; and the PTO sponsored several successful fundraisers for school improvement and staff/student incentives.

The Jackson Middle School teachers and staff participated in a variety of professional development opportunities, including graduate classes and state conferences. Mrs. April Smiley was named Jackson Middle School Teacher of the Year for 2009-2010. Mrs. Shirley Flippin was named Classified Employee of the Year for 2009-2010.

Jackson Middle School remains committed to the tradition of excellence!
