REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

The 2008-2009 school year was filled with success for Fulmer Middle School. Our school was recognized as a Palmetto Silver Award Winner by the State Department of Education for our increases in student achievement. This growth occurred as our poverty index grew from 61% to 70% and our special education population grew from 13.7% to 19% over the past three years. In addition, we continue to be recognized as a South Carolina Red Carpet School.

Our fine arts department continued to shine in all areas. The visual art department had five students win awards at the State Fair Art Show. The band received an "Excellent" rating at the SCBDA Concert Festival. Our band and strings students won numerous "Superior" and "Excellent" awards at their respective Solo and Ensemble competitions. In addition, we had students selected for All-State and Region Bands.

Our students also continue to achieve academically. We had two students qualify as Duke TIP Scholars, seven students qualify as South Carolina Junior Scholars, nine qualify as Myrdis Walker Scholars, and over seventy-eight students qualify for Junior Honor Society. Our teachers continue to collaboratively plan their instruction and create common assessments to assess students' mastery of the content standards. Using Mastery Manager, software that assists teachers in evaluating their test results to know which content areas and students need additional time. This is just a small part of our emphasis on providing our students with a guaranteed and viable curriculum.

Our outstanding faculty and staff includes seven National Board Certified teachers and one NBCT candidate. Nathan Caldwell, one of our sixth-grade social studies teachers, represented Fulmer Middle School as our Teacher of the Year. Our staff also continued our partnership with the University of South Carolina by serving as both a practicum site and clinical site for future teachers.

At Fulmer Middle School, our focus is student learning, which is achieved through the partnership and collaborative efforts of teachers, students, and parents. We will continue to analyze our assessment data for the purpose of improving our practices and to ensure that we reach our achievement goals as we continue our efforts as a true Professional Learning Community.
