REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Waccamaw Elementary had a very successful year in 2009-2010. The school earned several awards from the South Carolina Department of Education. These awards included earning the Silver Award for Pass test scores, closing the Achievement Gap, and receiving the Banner Award for our PBIS (Positive Behavior Interventions and Support) program. Our school received a grant for $2,500 from Wal-Mart to support our approach to reinforcing positive behavior through our celebrations for good behavior. Our positive community partnership with Wal-Mart earned our school a second grant of $4,200 to install a rain garden to help the environment and to teach our students about the importance of controlling rainwater runoff. Our school was able to benefit from our love of reading through a Lowes grant of $5,000 for new furniture to make the school's Media Center more inviting to student learners.

The gift from our community partners and volunteers has been exceedingly abundant this year. The strong community supports has allowed our students to benefit through the WES Clothes Closet stocked with new clothing thanks to the Carolina Forest Rotary Club. Our students learned about serving the community through our after school program, K-Kids, supported by the Conway Kiwanis Club. Our students were provided with school supplies when necessary from Christ Community Church. First Baptist West Church supported our school by having two food drives to help any family in need of assistance.

Our school embraced the idea of becoming an educational partner with Coastal Carolina through the Dalton and Linda Floyd Mentoring program serving our fourth and fifth graders and by providing our first graders with reading tutors.

We had several other organizations making a difference on our campus by donating their time, talents, and providing supplies to our school. We truly are a school supported through individual and community involvement. Our school's community involvement has helped us provide a school environment conducive to learning, laughing, and growing together.
