REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

As we have in the past, the Richland Northeast High School administration, faculty, and School Improvement Council look on the annual State of South Carolina Report Card as a marker of our progress as well as a baseline from which we can improve. We are constantly looking at better ways to educate and nurture our students, and our efforts are paying off. In 2010, we received a South Carolina Department of Education ACT/SAT Performance Improvement Award: the Summa Cum Laude Award for Excellent Improvement, for exceeding the state ACT/SAT average over three years.

Test scores and statistics are only part of the RNE picture, however. We face and surmount challenges that go far beyond numbers - and we do it with remarkable success.

Along among Richland School District Two's high schools, we are a Creative Ticket National School of Distinction and a Red Carpet school. In addition we have the distinction of appearing on all of Newsweek's list of best high schools nationwide. This year, RNE was one of 600 top-rated high schools chosen by Google to receive five computers. Though Google suggested that four of the laptops go to high-achieving math students and one to a math teacher, RNE opted to give all five to math students.

We had three National AP Scholars, eight AP Scholars with Distinction, twelve AP Scholars with Honor, and twenty-six AP Scholars and offered twenty-four AP courses. For the twenty-fourth year, all of our cosmetology students passed the state board examinations. Meanwhile, our nationally recognized Model UN team took its nineteenth first-place award at the National Model United Nations Conference.

The Palmetto Dramatics Association awarded its three top playwriting awards to Richland Northeast, which was the first time this association had given these awards to one school. Our Palmetto Center for the Arts Theatre students competed at the event, held jointly with the South Carolina Thespians. Our NJROTC qualified for the 2010 NJROTC National Drill, Academic, and Physical Fitness Championship - of the 700 NJROTC high school units nationwide, only twenty-four were invited to compete. One of our football players played in the Shrine Bowl and three of our athletes played in North-South All-Star Games.

We added three National Board Certified teachers. In addition, the four teachers who went through the renewal process retained their NBCT status. Teacher Daniel Cammisa was named a Claes Nobel Educator of Distinction, Perry McLeod was named Teacher of the Year for the National Society of Colonial Wars, and Nancy Riley was named South Carolina Cosmetology Teacher of the Year. Our teachers also won grants from the National Endowment for the Humanities and the South Carolina Department of Education. I am extremely honored to have been named The South Carolina Association of Student Councils Administrator of the Year for the 2009-2010 school year.

Along with all this, we've continued to emphasize community service, this year alone adopting dozens of families for Families Helping Families, collecting thousands of canned goods for God's Storehouse, raising thousands of dollars for Camp Kemo, and volunteering thousands of hours within the school and community. We're more than a school - we're the Cavalier Family.
