REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Whittaker Elementary School is a Title I School with a poverty level of over 90%. With this theoretically large obstacle this school has been able to defy the odds and garnered much success in the area of student academics in meeting or exceeding state standards. For the past two years Whittaker has met 13 of its 13 objectives and has met Adequate Yearly Progress. On the 2011 SDE report card, our Absolute Rating improved from Average to Good and we maintained our Growth Rating of Good. Though we have obtained success, we are still in need of continuous growth and improvement. As we analysis our data we have found that our schools' major need is in the area of mathematics.
