REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

CHS implemented a Collaborative Leaders at Work school improvement framework which concentrates on improving instruction, school climate, community communication, school culture, student attendance and use of technology. The school improved end of course pass percentages in Algebra 1, English 1, Biology & US History. CHS added another Nationally Board Certified teacher, while two other teachers renewed their certification and three teachers became certified AP test raters. The fine arts department had 14 all county choir members, one all state member, and earned superior and excellence ratings at SCMEA in both solo and ensemble competition. At the South Carolina National Teachers of Singing competition the group was awarded two excellent and two superior ratings. A Conway High student received the state scholarship from SCMEA. A newly restructured reading program implemented last fall significantly improved student reading skills. One student was selected to present his achievements at a national conference. Using state of the art equipment and the latest instructional design, the school redesigned its APEX course recovery program assisting over one hundred students achieve success in class work. CHS introduced three new clubs: Archery, Robotics and a Fishing Club. The Archery Club finished in the state's top ten while the Robotics team competed successfully in its debut and the fishing club members earned trophy distinctions at each match. Our athletic department had state qualifiers in competitive cheer, girls cross country, volleyball, football, wrestling, baseball, boy's golf, and boy's tennis. We were lower state qualifiers in boys and girls track & field. We had one student and one coach selected for the Shrine Bowl and one student selected for the North South All Star football game. Additionally we also had a student selected to participate in the North South All Star golf match. With efforts from the SCA, Interact Club, Yearbook Department, and Key Club, Conway High held its 1st Annual Holiday Toy Drive and raised a grand total of over 500 toys. Toys were donated to the Marine Corps Toys for Tots drive and Pee Dee Elementary School. This year marks the 5th anniversary of our annual "Revival of Academic Respect." Founded by assistant principal Meg Reed, ROAR has been the flagship of ceremonies to display student achievements. Well over 500 community members attended.
