REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Aynor Middle School is proud of the accomplishments that we have made during the school year. We continued to make progress by providing students with challenging and engaging instruction. Teachers participated in numerous hours of professional development on the state and local levels. Students were engaged in numerous service projects in the community, such as completing the Wounded Warrior Project for soldiers, performing musical programs at the elementary schools, and raising money for Make-a-Wish Foundation. Our PTO continued to support our instruction by providing funds for teacher supplies, teacher appreciation week, and incentives and awards to encourage our students in their academic work. Our staff continued to work hard to improve instruction by implementing high- yield strategies and programs. DesCartes Learning Continuum was used daily by teachers to drive instruction. Literacy First strategies were used across the curriculum. Monitored Independent Reading Practice (MIRP) was scheduled for twenty-five minutes a day. Response to Instruction framework for ELA was implemented on each grade level. Compass Learning and USA Test Prep were used in ELA and math as high-yield strategies. Read 180 and Real Math programs for grades 6-8 continued to enhance learning for our students. The results of Benchmark testing in science and social studies served as a major resource to improve instruction. The after-school tutorial program served students in ELA, math, social studies, and science. The use of parent/student emails helped to reduce student referrals, suspensions, and absences. The data team met monthly to analyze student data and make recommendations for improvement. Aynor Middle students continued to receive recognitions and many different awards. Some of these included: three students recognized for State Superintendent's Writing Awards Program; three accepted in the SC Gifted and Talented Program for the Arts at CCU; one SC Governor's School participant for the Arts & Humanities; one accepted to Scholars Academy; 19 Junior Scholars, and 13 Explore scholars; eight All-County Band; seven All-Region Band; 10 SC Ensemble; seven All-County orchestra; 19 students made All-County Chorus; 95 participated in the SC Regional Choral Festival; 10 CCU music scholars; an excellent rating at SC Middle School Chorus Music Festival, Columbia, SC; fourth place for our robotics team in the first HCS Robotics Team Competition; and one HTC Reel Kids recipient. Although we feel the quality of instruction in our school and district is high, we will always strive for improvement. Receiving the State AYP Silver Award for 2010-11 gives us the encouragement to continue our pursuit of student excellence.
