REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Lugoff-Elgin Middle School enjoyed another great year of academic, athletic, and extra-curricular success in 2011-2012. LEMS received a Palmetto Gold Award from the SC Department of Education for academic achievement in 2011. Additionally, 21 eighth grade students were named Junior Scholars while 5 seventh grade students were selected to be Duke TIP Scholars. Four students placed in the Lugoff Optimist Oratorical Contest and 2 placed in the Zone Competition. Student artwork was regularly displayed at the Kershaw County Fine Arts Center's Bassett Gallery, and the third annual Student Art Gallery opening was held in the spring. The newly formed percussion Trash Can Band was added to this art festival, and the Leopard Chorus performed at the first district wide choral festival in the spring. The Lugoff-Elgin Middle School Honor Band received an overall excellent rating at the SCBDA Concert Festival.

Athletically, one member of the Mighty Leopard Wrestling Team won an individual state title. The Lady Leopards volleyball team was undefeated for the third consecutive season.

Students and staff exemplified the school motto, "Understanding Hearts and Positive Attitudes make a Great School," through a variety of community service projects. Through school wide efforts, over $8,000 was raised for Relay for Life. Students, parents, and community members participated in a Parent Teacher Organization fundraiser that raised over $13,000 for our literacy program. Funds from this were used to purchase books and to secure an author visit for the Fall of 2012. Additionally, a character education program based on Rachel's Challenge will be implemented next school year using funds generated from this fundraiser. The combined efforts of parents, teachers, and community members make Lugoff-Elgin Middle School a wonderful place where students develop their promise, potential, and possibilities.
