REPORT OF PRINCIPAL AND SCHOOL IMPROVEMENT COUNCIL

Lugoff-Elgin Middle School enjoyed another great year of academic, athletic, and extra-curricular success in 2013-2014. LEMS was recognized by the National Forum to Accelerate Middle Grade Reform as a Re-designated II School to Watch in 2013. LEMS led Kershaw County School District in 13 of 15 areas of PASS performance. Additionally, 21 eighth grade students were named Junior Scholars while 4 seventh grade students were selected as Duke TIP Scholars. Five students placed in the Lugoff Optimist Oratorical Contest and 2 placed in the Zone Competition. The Leopard Chorus performed at the district wide choral festival in the spring and the Lugoff-Elgin Middle School Honor grade Band received an overall Superior rating at the SCBDA Concert Festival. Principal Karen Bullard was named Kershaw County School District Principal of the year while 11 teachers maintained National Board Certification. Athletically, the Mighty Leopard Wrestling Team won the state title and two team members earned individual state titles. The Leopard football team was undefeated and earned the conference championship.

Students and staff exemplified the school motto, “Understanding Hearts and Positive Attitudes make a Great School,” through a variety of community projects. Through school wide efforts, over $9,400 for was raised for Relay for Life. Students, parents, and community members participated in a Parent Teacher Organization fundraiser that raised funds to support character education and literacy. Through our partnership with the ALPHA Behavioral Health Center, the LEMS Morning Show was recognized for a program on drug prevention and awareness. This organization also sponsored the Rob Evans award to memorialize our School Resource Officer who passed away this year. As a member of the Kershaw County Chamber of Commerce, one of our business partners was recognized as the KCCC Business Partner of the Year for their support of our wrestling program and career classes. The combined efforts of parents, teachers, and community members make Lugoff-Elgin Middle School a wonderful place where students develop their promise, potential, and possibilities.
