CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The State Board may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2004). Just cause includes "unprofessional conduct, crime against the law of this State, immorality, and evident unfitness for position for which employed." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (2004); 24 S.C. Code Ann. Regs. 43-58 (Supp. 2011). The State Board finds that Ms. Robert engaged in unprofessional conduct and immorality, committed crimes against the law of this state, and demonstrated evident unfitness for position for which employed, as a result of her conduct with male students and her guilty plea on September 22, 2011, to two counts of Sexual Battery with a Student, no aggravated force of coercion.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented by the SCDE supports its decision that just cause exists to permanently revoke the educator certificate of Deanna M. Robert, certificate 220958. The permanent revocation of Ms. Robert's educator certificate 220958 shall be reported to the NASDTEC Clearinghouse and all South Carolina school districts within thirty days from the date of this order with the reasons stated as "unprofessional conduct, immorality, crimes against the law of this State and demonstrated unfitness for position for which employed."
