CONSENT ORDER OF VOLUNTARY SURRENDER

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

This matter comes before the South Carolina State Board of Education (hereinafter "State Board") on August 13, 2014. On August May 5, 2014, the South Carolina Department of Education (hereinafter "SCDE") sent a notice letter of the possible suspension or revocation of South Carolina of educator certificate 222146 to Mark A. Eppolito by certified mail, return receipt requested, based on the grounds of unprofessional conduct. Mr. Eppolito received the notice letter and requested a hearing, but subsequently agreed to waive the hearing and enter into this Consent Order of Voluntary Surrender. After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to accept the Consent Order of Voluntary Surrender, effective on August 13, 2014.

FINDINGS OF FACT

Mark A. Eppolito was employed as a teacher at Sampit Elementary School (hereinafter "School") in Georgetown County School District (hereinafter "District") during the 2013-2014 school year.

During an audit of its educator certification files, the SCDE discovered a discrepancy between NASDTEC Clearinghouse records and information Mr. Eppolito had provided to the District in an employment application regarding his previous employment. Following a District inquiry into the matter, Mr. Eppolito resigned from his position on April 7, 2014.

Mr. Eppolito does not wish to return to teaching, and therefore waives his right to a hearing and enters into this Consent Order of Voluntary.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to accept this Consent Order of Voluntary Surrender, effective on August 13, 2014. The surrender of Mr. Eppolito's educator certificate shall be reported to all school districts in South Carolina and the NASDTEC Clearinghouse within thirty days of this order with the reasons stated as "unprofessional conduct."

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

The State Board, upon careful review of the evidence presented, makes the following conclusions of law in this matter:

- (1) The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2004), which provides "The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, revoke or suspend the certificate of any person."
- (2) Just cause is statutorily defined to include "Unprofessional conduct." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160(4) (2004).
- (3) The evidence demonstrates that Mr. Eppolito committed unprofessional conduct by providing inaccurate or incomplete information to the District regarding his employment history.
- (4) The evidence presented supports the State Board's decision to accept the voluntary surrender of the educator certificate of Mark A. Eppolito, certificate 222146, effective August 13, 2014.
