SUMMARY OF THE CASE

This matter comes before the South Carolina State Board of Education (hereinafter “State Board”) on August 13, 2014. On May 5, 2014, the South Carolina Department of Education (hereinafter “SCDE”) sent a notice letter of the possible suspension or revocation of South Carolina educator certificate 196504 to Charles R. Johnson by certified mail, return receipt requested, based on the grounds of unprofessional conduct. Mr. Johnson received the notice letter as evidenced by a postal receipt bearing his signature. Mr. Johnson requested a hearing, but subsequently agreed to waive the hearing and enter into this Consent Order of Suspension. After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to accept the Consent Order of Suspension of Mr. Johnson’s “Elementary Principal” and “Elementary Supervisor” certificates for a period of three years commencing on August 13, 2014, and ending on August 12, 2017.

Charles R. Johnson has sixteen years of experience as a teacher and administrator. He holds a South Carolina certificate in the areas of “Elementary,” “Elementary Principal,” and “Elementary Supervisor.”

Mr. Johnson was employed as the principal at Pritchardville Elementary School (hereinafter "School") in the Beaufort County School District (hereinafter "District") during the 2013-2014 school year. Mr. Johnson resigned his position on September 19, 2013, following concerns regarding his conduct toward subordinate female employees and female applicants seeking employment with the District. These individuals alleged that Mr. Johnson had issued directives which they perceived to be sexually motivated and objectionable.

Mr. Johnson admits to issuing the directives, but denies that his conduct was sexually motivated. Nevertheless, Mr. Johnson concedes that his conduct was unprofessional and unbecoming of a school administrator, and agrees to the suspension of his "Elementary Principal" and "Elementary Supervisor" certifications for a period of three years beginning August 13, 2014 and ending on August 12, 2017. Mr. Johnson further agrees that he will not pursue additional supervisory certifications or supervisory positions with South Carolina public schools during this period; however, nothing in this Consent Order shall prevent or preclude Mr. Johnson from utilizing and/or maintaining his "Elementary" teaching certification during this three year suspension through whatever means normally allowed or required by the SCDE's Office of Educator Services. Accordingly, Mr. Johnson has agreed to waive his right to a hearing and enter into this Consent Order of Suspension.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to accept this Consent Order of Suspension of Mr. Johnson's "Elementary Principal" and "Elementary Supervisor" certificate for a period of three years beginning on August 13, 2014, and ending on August 12, 2017.
