

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Disciplinary Action of the Educator Certificate of Dylan Lee DeYoung
Certificate 285905

ORDER OF SUSPENSION (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on December 13, 2022. On August 15, 2022, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent Dylan Lee DeYoung a notice via regular and certified mail of his right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of his South Carolina educator certificate. The SCDE has verified Mr. DeYoung's address and the letter sent via regular mail has not been returned. On October 14, 2022, the SCDE informed Mr. DeYoung via regular mail that the State Board would meet on November 8, 2022, or as soon thereafter as is feasible, to consider action against his educator certification. Under the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure 5(b), Mr. DeYoung has been given fair notice of constitutional due process. He has not contacted the SCDE to request a hearing and is now in default.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to suspend Mr. DeYoung's educator certificate for a period of one year, commencing December 13, 2022, and ending on December 12, 2023.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint of Spartanburg School District One (District) seeking the suspension of the educator certificate of Mr. DeYoung for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2020) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020).

On May 10, 2022, Mr. DeYoung signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as a teacher for the 2022-23 school year. On June 23, 2022, Mr. DeYoung submitted his resignation to the District, effective immediately. In his resignation, Mr. DeYoung cited an opportunity that allowed him, "to provide and be closer to my family." On June 29, 2022, the District informed Mr. DeYoung he would not be released from his contract. The District Board voted to report Mr. DeYoung's breach of contract to the SCDE on August 8, 2022. The District reported the matter to the SCDE on August 8, 2022.

After considering the evidence, the State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Mr. DeYoung breached his contract with the District, and that just cause exists to suspend Mr. DeYoung's certificate 285905 for a period of one year, commencing on December 13, 2022, and ending on December 12, 2023.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." Just cause includes, inter alia, "unprofessional conduct" and "willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2020). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2021), the State Board of Education had the legal authority to suspend a certificate for "failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board." With respect to breach of contract, "any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct." S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020). "Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the state board shall suspend or revoke the teacher's certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year." Id.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Mr. DeYoung breached his contract without the consent and/or approval of the District. Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board's determination that just cause exists to suspend the educator certificate of Dylan Lee DeYoung for a period of one year, commencing on December 13, 2022, and ending on December 12, 2023.

If Mr. DeYoung wishes to have his educator certificate reinstated at the end of the suspension period, he shall make a written request to the SCDE's Office of Educator Services and shall meet all certification requirements in effect at the time he requests reinstatement. Mr. DeYoung shall also pay the applicable reinstatement fee. The
