

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Disciplinary Action of the Educator Certificate of Brittany Nicole Eastwood
Certificate 274815

ORDER OF SUSPENSION (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on January 17, 2023. On October 6, 2022, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent Brittany Nicole Eastwood a notice via regular and certified mail of her right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate. The SCDE has verified Ms. Eastwood's address and the letter sent via regular mail has not been returned. On November 21, 2022, the SCDE informed Ms. Eastwood via regular mail that the State Board would meet on January 17, 2023, to consider action against her educator certification. Under the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure 5(b), Ms. Eastwood has been given fair notice of constitutional due process. She has not contacted the SCDE to request a hearing and is now in default.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. Eastwood's educator certificate for a period of one year, commencing January 17, 2023, and ending on January 16, 2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint of Richland County School District Two (District) seeking the suspension of the educator certificate of Ms. Eastwood for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2018) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2018).

On May 6, 2022, Ms. Eastwood signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as a teacher for the 2022-23 school year. On June 23, 2022, Ms. Eastwood submitted a separation request to the District, effective immediately. In the request, Ms. Eastwood stated she was seeking work in another career field. On June 28, 2022, the District informed Ms. Eastwood she would not be released from her contract until a suitable replacement was found. She did not return to fulfill her contract with the District. The District Board voted to report Ms. Eastwood's breach of contract to the SCDE on September 27, 2022. The District reported the matter to the SCDE on October 5, 2022.

After considering the evidence, the State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Eastwood breached her contract with the District, and that just cause exists to suspend Ms. Eastwood's certificate 274815 for a period of one year, commencing on January 17, 2023, and ending on January 16, 2024.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." Just cause includes, inter alia, "unprofessional conduct" and "willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2020). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2021), the State Board of Education has the legal authority to suspend a certificate for "failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board." With respect to breach of contract, "any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct." S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020). "Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the state board shall suspend or revoke the teacher's certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year." Id.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Eastwood breached her contract without the consent and/or approval of the District. Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board's determination that just cause exists to suspend the educator certificate of Brittany Nicole Eastwood for a period of one year, commencing on January 17, 2023, and ending on January 16, 2024.

If Ms. Eastwood wishes to have her educator certificate reinstated at the end of the suspension period, she shall make a written request to the SCDE's Office of Educator Services and shall meet all certification requirements in effect at the time she requests
