

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Disciplinary Action of the Educator Certificate of Rachel Alloway
Certificate 300533

ORDER OF SUSPENSION (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on April 11, 2023. On January 31, 2023, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent Rachel Alloway a notice via regular and certified mail of her right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate. Ms. Alloway received the notice on February 4, 2023, as evidenced by signed postal receipt. She has not contacted the SCDE to request a hearing and is now in default.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. Alloway's educator certificate for a period of one year, commencing on April 11, 2023, and ending on April 10, 2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint of the Richland School District Two (District) seeking the suspension of the educator certificate of Ms. Alloway for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2020) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020).

On April 19, 2022, Ms. Alloway signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as a teacher for the 2022-23 school year. On January 6, 2023, Ms. Alloway submitted a separation request to the District, effective immediately. In her resignation, Ms. Alloway cited personal health reasons. On January 6, 2023, the District requested Ms. Alloway to submit supporting documentation to be considered for release from her contract. Ms. Alloway did not submit the requested documentation and did not return to fulfil her contract. The District Board voted to report Ms. Alloway's breach of contract to the SCDE on January 24, 2023. The District reported the matter to the SCDE on January 25, 2023.

After considering the evidence, the State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Alloway breached her contract with the District, and that just cause exists to suspend Ms. Alloway's certificate 300533 for a period of one year, commencing on April 11, 2023, and ending on April 10, 2024.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." Just cause includes, inter alia, "unprofessional conduct" and "willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2020). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2021), the State Board of Education has the legal authority to suspend a certificate for "failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board." With respect to breach of contract, "any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct." S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020). "Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the state board shall suspend or revoke the teacher's certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year." Id.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Alloway breached her contract without the consent and/or approval of the District. Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board's determination that just cause exists to suspend the educator certificate of Rachel Alloway, certificate 300533, for a period of one year, commencing on April 11, 2023, and ending on April 10, 2024.

If Ms. Alloway wishes to have her educator certificate reinstated at the end of the suspension period, she shall make a written request to the SCDE's Office of Educator Services and shall meet all certification requirements in effect at the time she requests reinstatement. Ms. Alloway shall also pay the applicable reinstatement fee. The suspension of Ms. Alloway's educator certificate 300533 shall be reported to the NASDTEC Clearinghouse and all South Carolina school districts within thirty days from the
