

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Disciplinary Action of the Educator Certificate of Joy Stephanie Scott
Certificate 290861

ORDER OF SUSPENSION (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on August 8, 2023. On March 10, 2023, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent Joy Stephanie Scott a notice via regular and certified mail of her right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate. The SCDE has verified Joy Stephanie Scott's address and the letter sent via regular mail has not been returned. On June 16, 2023, the SCDE informed Ms. Scott via regular mail that the State Board would meet on August 8, 2023, or as soon thereafter as is feasible, to consider action against her educator certification. Under the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure 5(b), Joy Stephanie Scott has been given fair notice of constitutional due process. Ms. Scott has not contacted the SCDE to request a hearing and is now in default.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to suspend Joy Stephanie Scott's educator certificate for a period of one year, commencing August 8, 2023, and ending on August 7, 2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint of the Richland County School District One (District) seeking the suspension of the educator certificate of Joy Stephanie Scott for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2018) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2018).

On May 10, 2022, Ms. Scott signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as a Teacher for the 2022-23 school year. On November 22, 2022, Ms. Scott submitted her resignation to the District, effective December 6, 2022, citing a desire to pursue a career outside education, as well as a desire to prioritize her mental, physical, and emotional health. On November 30, 2022, Ms. Scott also completed the District's Separation Request. On November 29, 2022, the District informed Ms. Scott she would not be released from her contract until a suitable candidate is identified and hired. The District Board voted to report Ms. Scott's breach of contract to the SCDE on February 14, 2023. The District reported the matter to the SCDE on February 28, 2023.

After considering the evidence, the State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Joy Stephanie Scott breached her contract with the District, and that just cause exists to suspend Ms. Scott's certificate 290861 for a period of one year, commencing on August 8, 2023, and ending on August 7, 2024.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." Just cause includes, inter alia, "unprofessional conduct" and "willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2020). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2021), the State Board of Education has the legal authority to suspend a certificate for "failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board." With respect to breach of contract, "any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct." S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020). "Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the state board shall suspend or revoke the teacher's certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year." Id.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Joy Stephanie Scott breached her contract without the consent and/or approval of the District. Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board's determination that just cause exists to suspend the educator certificate of Joy Stephanie Scott for a period of one year, commencing on August 8, 2023, and ending on August 7, 2024.

If Ms. Scott wishes to have her educator certificate reinstated at the end of the suspension period, she shall make a written request to the SCDE's Office of Educator
