

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Disciplinary Action of the Educator Certificate of TuWanda LaNell Oglesby
Certificate 291073

ORDER OF SUSPENSION (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on February 14, 2023. On October 19, 2022, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent TuWanda LaNell Oglesby a notice via regular and certified mail of her right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate. The SCDE has verified Ms. Oglesby's address and the letter sent via regular mail has not been returned. On November 29, 2022, the SCDE informed Ms. Oglesby via regular mail that the State Board would meet on January 17, 2023, or as soon thereafter as is feasible, to consider action against her educator certification. Under the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure 5(b), Ms. Oglesby has been given fair notice of constitutional due process. Ms. Oglesby has not contacted the SCDE to request a hearing and is now in default.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. Oglesby's educator certificate for a period of one year, commencing February 14, 2023, and ending on February 13, 2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint of Anderson School District Five (District) seeking the suspension of the educator certificate of Ms. Oglesby for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2018) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2018).

On May 4, 2022, TuWanda LaNell Oglesby signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as a teacher for the 2022-23 school year. On July 19, 2022, Ms. Oglesby submitted her resignation to the District, effective immediately. She stated she was given an opportunity to pursue a career outside of education. On July 21, 2022, the District informed Ms. Oglesby she would not be released from her contract unless a suitable replacement was found. She did not return to fulfil her contract. The District Board voted to report Ms. Oglesby's breach of contract to the SCDE on September 20, 2022. The District reported the matter to the SCDE on October 5, 2022.

After considering the evidence, the State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Oglesby breached her contract with the District, and that just cause exists to suspend Ms. Oglesby's certificate 291073 for a period of one year, commencing on February 14, 2023, and ending on February 13, 2024.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." Just cause includes, inter alia, "unprofessional conduct" and "willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2018). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2018), the State Board of Education has the legal authority to suspend a certificate for "failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board." With respect to breach of contract, "any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct." S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2018). "Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the state board shall suspend or revoke the teacher's certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year." Id.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Oglesby breached her contract without the consent and/or approval of the District. Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board's determination that just cause exists to suspend the educator certificate of TuWanda LaNell Oglesby for a period of one year, commencing on February 14, 2023, and ending on February 13, 2024.

If Ms. Oglesby wishes to have her educator certificate reinstated at the end of the suspension period, she shall make a written request to the SCDE's Office of Educator Services and shall meet all certification requirements in effect at the time she requests
