

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Disciplinary Action of the Educator Certificate of
Amanda Katherine Poor
Certificate 300364

ORDER OF SUSPENSION (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on May 9, 2023. On March 17, 2023, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent Amanda Katherine Poor a notice via regular and certified mail of her right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of her South Carolina educator certificate. Ms. Poor received the notice on March 27, 2023, as evidenced by signed postal receipt. She has not contacted the SCDE to request a hearing and is now in default.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to suspend Ms. Poor's educator certificate for a period of one year, commencing on May 9, 2023, and ending on May 8, 2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint of Spartanburg School District Two (District) seeking the suspension of the educator certificate of Ms. Poor for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2020) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020).

On April 11, 2022, Ms. Poor signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as a speech language therapist for the 2022-23 school year. On November 21, 2022, Ms. Poor submitted her resignation to the District, effective December 16, 2023. In the resignation, Ms. Poor stated she was accepting a job outside of the District. On November 21, 2022, the District informed Ms. Poor she would not be released from her contract until a replacement was found. The District Board voted to report Ms. Poor's breach of contract to the SCDE on February 14, 2023. The District reported the matter to the SCDE on March 15, 2023.

After considering the evidence, the State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Poor breached her contract with the District, and that just cause exists to suspend Ms. Poor's certificate 300364 for a period of one year, commencing on May 9, 2023, and ending on May 8, 2024.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." Just cause includes, inter alia, "unprofessional conduct" and "willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2020). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2021), the State Board of Education has the legal authority to suspend a certificate for "failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board." With respect to breach of contract, "any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct." S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020). "Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the state board shall suspend or revoke the teacher's certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year." Id.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Ms. Poor breached her contract without the consent and/or approval of the District. Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board's determination that just cause exists to suspend the educator certificate of Amanda Katherine Poor for a period of one year, commencing on May 9, 2023, and ending on May 8, 2024.

If Ms. Poor wishes to have her educator certificate reinstated at the end of the suspension period, she shall make a written request to the SCDE's Office of Educator Services and shall meet all certification requirements in effect at the time he requests reinstatement. Ms. Poor shall also pay the applicable reinstatement fee. The suspension of Ms. Poor's educator certificate 300364 shall be reported to the NASDTEC Clearinghouse and all South Carolina school districts within thirty days from the date of
