

BEFORE THE SOUTH CAROLINA STATE BOARD OF EDUCATION

In the Matter of the Disciplinary Action of the Educator Certificate of John Oswald
Certificate 907033

ORDER OF SUSPENSION (BREACH OF CONTRACT)

SUMMARY OF THE CASE

The South Carolina State Board of Education (State Board) considered this matter on November 14, 2023. On August 18, 2023, and September 19, 2023, the South Carolina Department of Education (SCDE) sent John Oswald a notice via regular and certified mail of his right to a hearing regarding the possible suspension of his South Carolina educator certificate. The SCDE has verified Mr. Oswald's address and the letter sent via regular mail has not been returned. On October 23, 2023, the SCDE informed Mr. Oswald via regular mail that the State Board would meet on November 14, 2023, or as soon thereafter as is feasible, to consider action against his educator certification. Under the South Carolina Rules of Civil Procedure 5(b), Mr. Oswald has been given fair notice of constitutional due process. He has not contacted the SCDE to request a hearing and is now in default.

After considering the evidence presented, the State Board voted to suspend Mr. Oswald's educator certificate for a period of one year, commencing November 14, 2023, and ending on November 13, 2024.

FINDINGS OF FACT

This case concerns a formal complaint of the Aiken County Public School District (District) seeking the suspension of the educator certificate of Mr. Oswald for breach of contract. The State Board has jurisdiction in this matter pursuant to S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-150 (2020) and S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020).

On May 11, 2023, Mr. Oswald signed a contractual agreement with the District to serve as a teacher for the 2023-24 school year. On July 15, 2023, Mr. Oswald submitted his resignation to the District. In his resignation, Mr. Oswald stated he was making his own business his full time job. On July 17, 2023, the District informed Mr. Oswald he would not be considered for release from his contract until a suitable candidate to fill the position was found. He did not return to work. The District Board voted to report Mr. Oswald's breach of contract to the SCDE on August 8, 2023. The District reported the matter to the SCDE on August 11, 2023.

After considering the evidence, the State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Mr. Oswald breached his contract with the District, and that just cause exists to suspend Mr. Oswald's certificate 907033 for a period of one year, commencing on November 14, 2023, and ending on November 13, 2024.

CONCLUSIONS OF LAW

"The South Carolina Board of Education may, for just cause, either revoke or suspend the certificate of any person." Just cause includes, inter alia, "unprofessional conduct" and "willful violation of the rules and regulations of the State Board of Education." S.C. Code Ann. § 59-25-160 (3) and (4) (2020). Pursuant to 24 S.C. Code Regs. 43-58 (2) and (14) (2021), the State Board of Education has the legal authority to suspend a certificate for "failure to comply with the provision of a contract without the written consent of the local school board." With respect to breach of contract, "any teacher who fails to comply with the provisions of his [or her] contract without written consent of the school board shall be deemed guilty of unprofessional conduct." S. C. Code Ann. § 59-25-530 (2020). "Upon formal complaint of the school board, substantiated by conclusive evidence, the state board shall suspend or revoke the teacher's certificate, for a period not to exceed one calendar year." Id.

The State Board finds that the evidence presented demonstrates that Mr. Oswald breached his contract without the consent and/or approval of the District. Accordingly, the evidence presented supports the State Board's determination that just cause exists to suspend the educator certificate of John Oswald for a period of one year, commencing on November 14, 2023, and ending on November 13, 2024.

If Mr. Oswald wishes to have his educator certificate reinstated at the end of the suspension period, he shall make a written request to the SCDE's Office of Educator Services and shall meet all certification requirements in effect at the time he requests
